

OBG-Speculum

OBG-Speculum

AIM:

Speculum is a scientific compilation of articles providing more clinically oriented practical and recent information related to the subject, Obstetrics & Gynaecology to update and refresh the knowledge of OBG practitioners and useful for improvising their professional activities. Online open access format kept for larger dissemination of the scientific knowledge to aspiring young generation keen to pursue the career in OBG or those in the phase of establishing practice and brushing up for the experienced practitioners.

SCOPE:

Scope of this E-bulletin is to cover all the broad areas of OBG and publish updated data, evidence, guidelines, and operative skills through videos, case reports and articles that focus on women's reproductive health. It invites editorials and articles from experts in the field to share the information in the recent, conferences, CME, clinical Trials. It is a platform for communication and exchange of thoughts. This e-bulletin provides a platform for beginners in the field of research and publication.